EDITORIAL POLICY

AIMS AND SCOPE

AJIREL Journal is a flagship, high visibility, peer-review professional publication of the Awka School of History and International Relations. The journal calls for evidence-based research works, relevant to, and limited to the broad scope of International Relations.

Guidelines for Publishing:

- ❖ Abstract should not exceed 250 words with five key words.
- ❖ Manuscripts being submitted should be written using the English mode of spelling.
- ❖ Contributors must only use APA style.
- ❖ Manuscript must be word processed in Microsoft word, Times New Roman font style, 12-point font size, 1.5 line spacing, typed in A4 paper and not exceeding 15 pages length including references.
- ❖ Cover page of completed papers bearing author(s) name, surname, and middle name including institutional affiliation should be on a separate file with title of paper as file name (so as to facilitate blind review of articles).
- ❖ Manuscript for publication in the journal must make an original contribution to knowledge in International Relations, and must not have been submitted or published elsewhere.
