EDITORIAL NOTES

Nigerian Journal of African Studies (NJAS) is an interdisciplinary and a multidisciplinary journal dedicated to scholarship and research in African studies. It aims at publishing high quality original manuscripts in African languages, literatures, religions, politics, economy, history, culture, anthropology, societies, science, technology and many more. NJAS is a peer reviewed open access journal. The scope of the journal includes all areas of studies on Africa. Nigerian Journal of African Studies (NJAS) is an Open Access journal. Abstract and full texts of all articles published in this journal are freely accessible to everyone after publication without any form of restriction. All articles published under open access can be accessed by anyone with internet connection. NJAS is indexed on Google Scholar.

GUIDELINES TO AUTHOR

The journal follows a yearly publishing schedule and welcomes original research articles in African and English languages. An article can be sent at any time of the year in Microsoft Word format to officialnjas@gmail.com. An article must not exceed 10 pages (5000 words) in a single spacing with 12-point Time New Roman font and any current referencing style. Submission of articles must be original, must not have been submitted elsewhere for publication, and author(s) must agree to grant the first editing/publishing rights to the journal upon acceptance. No withdrawal of article after submission. An article should include a cover page with the title, name of the author(s), institution/address, phone number and email address. The editor makes every effort in editing and correction to ensure the accuracy of the work. However, the editor and publisher are not responsible for any errors or omissions that may be found in the any article. Any views expressed in this publication are the views of the author(s) and are not the views of the editor or publisher.
