Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin Okeke Maduka, alias Nnadiesuebe

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin Okeke Maduka, alias Nnadiesuebe (1920-1995), is from Ekwulobia, Aguata LGA, Anambra State and a Catholic Priest of Awka Diocese and a member of the Papal Chamberlin. He had his Secondary education at Christ the King College (CKC) Onitsha (1940-1943). He did his Probationary work for two years at the same CKC (1944-1946). He was ordained on 20th December, 1953 at St Peter's Basilica, Rome by Cardinal Perfect of Propaganda Fidei: Pietro Fummasoni Bondi. He has Master's degree in Canon Law (J.C.L) from Pontifical Urbaniana Unversitas. Nnadiesuebe is a Sage and a protagonist of Inculturation (Theology of Incarnation) as the Christian's contextualization of Faith (Gospel) and Culture (Tradition). He is a great ancestor on how to be Igbo and a true Christian via his peculiarcharacteristic Christianization of African-Igbo Cultures, that is, an Africanization of Christianity, decades before Inculturation became the evangelical refrain of Vatican II Council (1962-65). By his sublime teaching as a Pastor and profound practice of Inculturation, he became the forerunner of Vatican II Council adaptations and renewal, hence, a precursor of African Synod and avant-garde of authentic Igbo Christianity. The NJs, published in loving memory of Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. O. Maduka, will help develop and encourage scholarship by astute scholars as authentic African thinkers ever proud of their African identity.
