

The Seasons

Seasons are colours sprayed on life without a pointer of sky ball.

Seasons are leeboards for lifeboats
with dotting leeway.

Seasons are spread above in skies
of clouds both light and heavy.

Always look up for droplets of rain with sunshine.
and take delight when rainbow spreads in seven colours.

Don't smile away the sight!
Embrace it with a richer mind!

The colours make you richer in sombrest season!
