

Sunshine

Sunshine, I kissed the foot of muse to birth this emotion pouring in lines!

In sweetness of heart, I name you the fairest of us all in soul and skin.

I admire you for those sun- beaming eyes of yours that spray love and kindness.

I admire you for your inner strength as a man laced with strong arms of support to a rising soul!

I admire you for being a father to cheering lovely children.

I admire you for striding on love and humility in making a step.

In fair admiration, I spray my hidden thoughts— one that whispers' you're lucky and blessed'
