

Solitude

~~~Mir Mehroosa Manzoor

Gentle streams of memories floating by
Sparking nostalgia making me sigh

Moments travelling on trains of dreams
Longings entwined me in streams

Far away from my home
Deep solitude fills my soul

Patience & Forbearance fading away
Take me home where I belong all the way

Aching to perish the stretch of distance
In pursuit of my gone existence

Far away from my home
Deep solitude fills my soul

I am drenched in an ocean of solitude
Sombre feels making me screwed

The hues of life are merely dusted
The joys and bliss getting diminished

Far away from my home
Deep solitude fills my soul....
