EDITORIAL NOTES

AIMS AND SCOPE

The Interdisciplinary Journal of African & Asian Studies is a peer-reviewed academic journal focusing on issues in Africa and Asia pertaining to interdisciplinary studies in humanities and social science. Where possible, comparisons are made between countries and continents. The scope of the journal includes, but not limited to, African and Asian languages, literatures, religions, arts, films, politics, trades, laws, cultures and many more.

GUIDELINES TO AUTHOR

The journal follows a yearly publishing schedule and welcomes original research articles in English language. An article can be sent at any time of the year in Microsoft Word format to ijaasng@gmail.com. An article must not exceed 10 pages (5,000 words) in a single spacing with 12-point Time New Roman font and any current referencing style. Submission of articles must be original, must not have been submitted elsewhere for publication, and author(s) must agree to grant the first editing/publishing rights to the journal upon acceptance. No withdrawal of article after submission. An article should include a cover page with the title, name of the author(s), institution/address, phone number and email address. The editor makes every effort in editing and correction to ensure the accuracy of the work. However, the editor and publisher are not responsible for any errors or omissions that may be found in the any article. Any views expressed in this publication are the views of the author(s) and are not the views of the editor or publisher.
