EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Aims and scope

Journal of Linguistics, Language and Culture (JoLLC) publishes research papers in linguistics, language and culture. It especially is interested in essays and studies that contribute to a better understanding of linguistics, language and culture in education. The journal also publishes critical reviews of books that contribute to knowledge in the areas of linguistics, language and culture. The number and the professional structure of the consulting editors correspond with the objectives and scope of the journal.

Manuscript format

Manuscripts should include a coversheet with the name and contact information of the contributor(s). Well researched articles for publication must be original, neither published nor considered for publication elsewhere. Manuscripts, books for review and all editorial correspondence should be sent to the editors at journaloflingslangandculture@gmail.com, and follow this order: Times New Roman, Point 12, double line spacing, not more than 15 pages, Linguistic Society of America (LSA) or Current APA or MLA style of documentation. Articles can be written in any languages with English translation of abstract. The articles are subjected to peer-reviews and editing before they are finally accepted for publication. Editors and authors have done extensive correction and proof reading. Editors and publisher disclaim all responsibility for any errors or omissions or liability for the results obtained from use of the information, or parts thereof, contained in this work.
